Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, The state of South Dakota recognizes the great importance to retain its talented citizens, and the need to bring such talent to our rural areas; and,

Whereas, David Dick was born and raised in rural South Dakota, and after pursuing higher education in this state and out-of-state, has returned and helped to better, not only a rural community, but also through service with state health organizations in the state as a whole; and,

Whereas, David's impact has been noteworthy for meeting the great challenges of today's economic climate; not only maintaining, but improving health care access and delivery for citizens of his South Dakota community and its rural region; and,

Whereas, David's considerable accomplishments in work, home and civic participations are being recognized by the city of Philip:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 18, 2003, as in South Dakota.

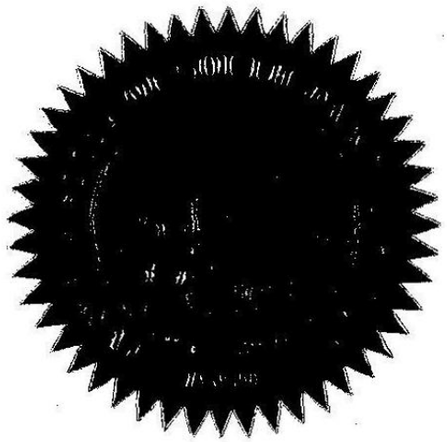
In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.



M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
